of Tennessee and Banquet to Be Given.

A special train passed through Hopkinsville Sunday afternoon route to Nashville, with President Stuyvesant Fish and Second Vice President J. T. Harahan, of the Illinois Central, and a number of the Train arrived here over the J. C. of Nashville. Another special train of officials of that road. The train arrived here over the J. C. Or Nashville. Another special train of officials and passed through here over the same roads early this morning enroute to the capital of Tennessee. In this party were J. C. Van Blarcom, president of the Tennessee Central; J. W. Balley, United States Senator from Texas; N. C. Chapman, formerly vice president of the Tennessee Central. This party will meet the other of. ficials and spend the day with them. Tonight they will all attend a big banquet at the Maxwell House. A large party of officials of the Southern road are also in Nashville, and the three parties of officials will go over the terminals of the property recently purchased by them there. The American says that no sensational announcements are expected from any members of the party, as it has already been stated that the two roads, whether jointly or not, are to invest about $2,000,000 in Nashville, and tries that this money will be spent for real estate, tracks, shops, passenger and freight stations.

The general entertainment committee of Nashville extended an invitation to M. H. Smith, president of the L. & N. Teminal Co. at Nashville, to attend the banquet. Plates will be laid for two hundred guests.

Barn and Contents Destroyed

Saturday Night.

Crofton, Ky., Oct. 30.—A large barn belonging to Mr. D. T. Cranor, of this place, was destroyed by fish saturday night about 10 o'clock. The ouilding contained twenty-one thousand pounds of hay, which had been placed in the barn Saturday afternoon, and this was also consumed. It is not known how the originated, but Mr. Cranor is of the opinion that it was the work of an incendiary. The barn was worth about $300 and the hay $100. The building was insured for $100.

Petersburg, Oct. 31.-While

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—While yesterday passed quietly, without bloodshed in the Russian capital, and while the city is outwardly calm, developments all indicate that a crisis is imminent. All the streets are filled with troops, and re-inforcements are now pouring in from Finland. The government seems utterly powerless to cope with the situation, and many-calm observers seem seriously to believe that the present regime is tottering to its fall.

Differences have developed be-tween Count Witte and Gen. Trepoff, and while the precious moments pass the Emperor, surrounded by the imperial family, remains shut up at Patarbafe seemingly still hecitalists.

Grave doubts are expressed as to whether even the Imperial Guard can now be relied upon. Discontent is rife.

The situation cannot well be exaggerated. With the present indecision of the Emperor the Government has neither a head nor a policy to meet the crisis, and things seem to be drifting towards anarchy. The revolutionists openly declare that the Government has ceased to exist and that nothing remains te his majesty except to abdicate. With a firm hand at the helm and a rational policy, however, all might quickly be changed.

The Kentuckian, Bad Blood AMUSEMENTS. List Appointed to Conduct

Miss Vivian Forrest, who made such a hit opposite the prima donna in the Beggar Prince and other musical comedy companies during the St. Louis world's fair, is to have the second part in "Cinderealla" with the Jule Foreman Musical Comedy Company. Manager Alley has surrounded Miss Foreman with an exceptional cast of principals, including Fred Godding, the clever comic opera comedian, and a chorus of excellent voices possessed by the pretty girls, and critics have classed his aggregation as one of the most appropriately and evenly selected companies in the musical comedy field. The Jule Foreman Musical Comedy Company will appear at Holland's opera house Nov. 1 and 2, with a matine Thursday.

Barlow & Wilson's Minstrels Barlow & Wilson's Minstrels hold forth at Holland's opera house, Saturday night, Nov. 4. The date is asspicious and the company well-known. Since the days of old, when four of the best end *men in the United States formed a trust on minstrelsy, everything goes in the first rank that has Barlow, Wilson, Primrose or West's name to it. There are real sane-looking people who say they do not like grand opera, but nobody is willing to declare his dislike to a good minstrel show.

convulsed with laughter, while the English lady went on ahead of us, scolding James for daring to disregard her warning not to start on Friday.

If there is such a thing as luck surely the American republic has had its full share among the na tions of the earth, and this repub-lic was created by 13 colonies of the mother country. It can be proved that 13 is the most lucky number there is, if interesting coincidences may be considered indications of "luck."

There is no such thing as luck. There is no such thing as free. There is such a thing as Providence. "Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass."
